Time

Music by Ian Tilley & Fiona Pears

Words by Robert Prizeman

I am the hours and moments of your yesterday
I am your time gone by All days and ages, fleeting long since passed away as endless years roll by

I rise in the spark of life, the dawn of all time I call to the worlds still yet to be The music is everywhere, in life, in the sea and air to join in the powerful song of all eternity

I am the hours, the days and moments yet to come until the end of time

All the centuries and seasons that are still to run
as endless years roll by

Then all of creation rings and all in the heavens sing their glorious song through all eternity

I am the dawn of all time

Sanctus

Music based on 'Canon' by Johann Pachelbel

Exultate

Music by Robert Prizeman

Arranged by Robert Prizeman and Steven Geraghty

Latin words trad. adapted by Robert Prizeman

English words by Henry Burton

There's a light upon the mountains and the day is at the spring when our eyes shall see the wonder and the glory it will bring

Exultate Domino omnis populi Alleluia

Jubilate Domino omnis terra Alleluia et laudate Domino in laetitia et cantate Domino gloria saecula et saeculorum Alleluia

Angeli et archangeli, psallite et laudate in hymnis et psalmis et canticis

Hark we hear a distant music and it comes with fuller swell tis the glorious song of heaven and our fears it will dispel

We hear a distant music - it comes with fuller swell for the angels here are human, not the shining hosts above for the drumbeats of the army are the heart beats of our love

The Fountain

Music by Frederic Chopin

Based on Prelude in C minor arranged by Robert Prizeman
Words by Robert Prizeman and Ben Crawley

Dolorosa, flumenosa, desolata, lacrimabila

Dolorosa, flumenosa, plorata

The water sighs for me through teardrops now I see The streaming water knows the fountain overflows

To cry for all, to wash all sorrow in waves of peace and love
Free my thirsty soul again
O living fountain

How can I keep from singing?

Music trad. arranged by Robert Prizeman
Words by Robert Wadsworth Lowry

My life flows on in endless song Above earth's lamentation.
I hear the real though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation.
No storm can shake my inmost calm
While to that rock I'm clinging
It sounds an echo in my soul,
How can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest round me roars,
I know the truth, it liveth,
What though the darkness round me close,
Songs in the night it giveth
No storm can shake my inmost calm
While to that rock I'm clinging
Since love is lord of heaven and earth
How can I keep from singing?

I lift my eyes, the cloud grows thin;
I see the blue above it;
And day by day this pathway smooths,
Since first I learned to love it.
The peace of Christ makes fresh my heart,
A fountain ever springing;
All things are mine since I am his,
How can I keep from singing?

When a knight won his spurs

English trad. melody
Arranged by Robert Prizeman & Steven Geraghty
Words by Jan Struther

When a knight won his spurs in the stories of old He was gentle and brave He was gallant and bold with a shield on his arm and a lance in his hand for God and for valour he rode through the land

No charger have I and no sword by my side yet still to adventure and battle I ride though back into storyland giants have fled and the knights are no more and the dragons are dead

Let faith be my shield and let joy be my steed
'gainst the dragons of anger the ogres of greed and let me set free with the sword of my youth from the castle of darkness the power of the truth

Love and mercy

Music & words by Brian Wilson
Arranged by Rob Mathes and Robert Prizeman

I was sitting in a crummy movie with my hands on my chin all the violence that occurs seems like we never win
Love and mercy to you and your friends tonight
Oh, love and mercy are what we need tonight

I was lying in my room and the news came on TV there's a lot of people out there hurting and it really scares me
Love and mercy to you and your friends tonight
Oh, love and mercy are what we need tonight

I was standing in a bar and watching all the people there all the loneliness in this world - it's just not fair
Love and mercy to you and your friends tonight.

Deep peace

Music by John Rutter
Words Trad. Celtic

Deep peace of the running wave to you	Deep peace of the gentle night to you
Deep peace of the flowing air to you	Moon and stars pour their healing light on you
Deep peace of the quiet earth to you	Deep peace of Christ the light of the world to you
Deep peace of the shining stars to you	Deep peace of Christ to you

Stay with me

Music by Robert Prizeman
Chorus words Trad.; English words by Robert Prizeman

You are everything I know
Whichever way I go
Forever stay with me
Venite angeli Cantate domino Laudate
You see me through when ever I'm afraid
However far away
For ever comfort me
You're on my side whichever way I choose
In everything I do
Forever stay with me

Going home

Music by Antonin Dvorak
Based on Largo – from 9th Symphony 'From the New World' arranged by Robert Prizeman Words by William Arms Fisher

Going home Going home	No more longing for the day
I am going home	Going to run no more
Quiet like, some still day	Morning star lights the way
I am going home	Restless dreams all gone
It's not far, just close by,	Shadows gone, break of day through an open door	real life has begun
Work all done, care laid by	There's no break, there's no end never fear no more	Just a living on Mother's there expecting me	Wide awake, with a smile
Father's waiting too	going on and on
Lots of faces gathered there	Going home Going home
All the friends I knew	I am going home
I'm just going home	shadows gone break of day
No more fear No more pain	real life has begun
No more stumbling by the way	I'm just going home

How shall I sing that majesty?

Music by Robert Prizeman
Arranged by Robert Prizeman and Steven Geraghty
Words by John Mason

How great a being, which doth all beings keep Thy knowledge the only line to sound so vast a deep Thou art a sea without a shore, a sun without a sphere
Thy time is now and evermore, Thy place is everywhere
How shall I sing that majesty which angels do admire?
Let dust in dust and silence lie
Sing, sing ye heavenly choir Enlighten with faith my heart, inflame it with love's fire then shall I bear a part with that celestial choir

PROGRAM NOTES

Libera is true to the meaning of its Latin title, 'Free', and crosses many musical boundaries. With original repertoire, innovative textures and inventive arrangements the group brings an imaginative new perspective to the landscape of vocal music.

The core of the sound is built around the voices of the young singers with their clarity, enthusiasm and excitement - the haunting yet vibrant sound of the treble voice that has long been a feature of choral music, particularly in the church.

Indeed, the defining inspiration for Libera sprang from the ancient music of the cathedrals and monasteries – from the earliest form of choral music - plainsong. The boys' robes of course retain a visual continuation of that history, and quite closely copy what the boy monks wore when they sang and were schooled in medieval monasteries. Libera mix the traditional chants with contemporary instrumentation and arrangement. Hence songs like 'Salva me' and 'Libera' reflect the shapes and mood of the old plainchant whilst combining it with new lyrics and harmonies. In fact, the song 'Libera' was the first to be written for the group. It uses a single line of plainsong with many overlapping tunes and harmony, which encompass the full range of the boys' voices.

Some songs are arrangements of well-known classical works. Although the originals could not be bettered, some lend themselves to the uplifting sound and harmonies of the boys' treble voices. The famous 'Canon' by Pachelbel, for instance, provides the basis for 'Sanctus' and an opportunity for some of the highest treble notes. 'Gloria', borrowed from Camille Saint-Saens, is well suited to the uplifting lines of his electrifying organ symphony. 'The Fountain', one of Libera's newest arrangements, is based on a famous and poignant melody from Chopin's Prelude in C minor.

The lyrics of Libera, many of which are sung in Latin, are most frequently drawn from a variety of contemplative and inspirational sources, both ancient and modern, including the Mass, Requiem Mass and the Psalms of the biblical Old Testament. We sing in Latin out of respect for the integrity of these ancient devotional texts, believing that there is redemptive value in seeking out the deeper meaning. Our lyrics remain intentionally discreet, drawn from sources over the centuries that have inspired and encouraged. The lyrics are sometimes allegorical, as in 'When a Knight Won His Spurs', which like Chaucer in his Tales takes the form of a proverb, and describes the spiritual growth to maturity of a young man, ultimately called to do battle with "the dragons of anger" that afflict every generation. One of Libera's more recent and most popular releases - 'Love and Mercy', an authorised arrangement of a song by Brian Wilson of the Beach Boys - is a modern version of the classical benedictive blessing.

We encourage our audience to listen to both melody and lyric with both heart and mind. Thank you for sharing this evening with us.

With Love and Mercy from Libera to you and yours tonight.

LIBERA

Familiar to audiences across the world, LIBERA is both ancient and modern. The distinctive white robes symbolise the traditional origins of the style - yet the music reaches across the generations to a contemporary audience. LIBERA's success in album charts around the world bears witness to the extraordinary appeal of this unique 'boy band'.

In the US LIBERA is known through their concert tours and TV appearances including a nationwide PBS special which was filmed in Holland. The boys had their debut at the Kennedy Centre Honors, where they performed in front of the President and a hall full of celebrities - including Robert de Niro, Cameron Diaz, Diana Ross, Steve Martin and Brian Wilson. The boys were privileged to close the ceremony with a moving tribute to honoree Brian Wilson of the Beach Boys. This was followed by LIBERA's participation in the Papal Mass at the climax of Pope Benedict XVI's first visit to the USA. Performing to a capacity congregation of 65,000 at New York's Yankee Stadium, LIBERA were the only British artists to take part in this historical event. The Yankee Stadium appearance was the culmination of their first US Angel Voices tour (including a performance at New York's Riverside Church), as well as concerts in the northeast of the United States in Buffalo, Hartford, Albany and Pittsburgh. In the US recently LIBERA appeared in concert at the Crystal Cathedral in California and staged events in California, including Disneyland – where they took in a few rides as well!

The group is well known to UK audiences through TV appearances, staged concerts and albums which frequently top the classical charts. Concerts have been staged in venues as diverse as the Queen Elizabeth Hall in London, the Grassington Festival in Yorkshire, Abbey Road Studios, the Edinburgh festival, the National Concert Hall in Dublin, St Peter's Cathedral in Belfast, and Arundel Cathedral. At the annual industry awards – the Classical Brits – the boys have been nominated as 'Young Performers of the Year' several times.

LIBERA has made many TV appearances in the UK including BBC-TV's 'Last Choir Standing', on which the LIBERA boys were featured as guests. They were winners of the Saturday night show 'When Will I Be Famous' and had a whole documentary devoted to them on BBC-TV's 'Songs of Praise'. LIBERA regularly sing at events and services in cathedrals and churches like Buckfast Abbey and Westminster Cathedral.

The boys who make up the band have been described as 'normal' and 'ordinary' but as their recordings and performances demonstrate, the music they produce is truly extraordinary. Through their involvement in LIBERA, they have travelled the world, recorded movie soundtracks and CDs and served as backing singers to mega-stars. But, as one of the boys said, "The travelling and filming is fun but even if we didn't go anywhere I'd still want to do it because I just love singing."

Libera is a non-profit charity registered in the United Kingdom, and as such is wholly dependent on the generous financial support of its private listeners around the world. Without this support we would be unable to hold public concerts of this nature. The cost of training and touring is close to US$5,000 per chorister per year, most of which is not recovered through royalties, ticket or album sales, or tour advances.

If you wish to consider sponsoring a chorister or supporting Libera in general, or know of someone who might, we would be delighted to hear from you at office@Libera.org.uk. Thank you.
